

Unusual and Exciting Succulents

There are so many amazing and unusual succulents and cacti that change color and flower! Our collection of these exciting plants is in our Prop house.

The Plants

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Echeveria-beautiful rosette succulent with many varieties that blooms brilliant bell-shaped flowers• Kalanchoe ‘Fang’- a stunning fuzzy plant that requires high light• Agave ‘Blue glow’-a multi-colored treasure• Aloe striata- pleasant textured leaves with subtle edge color• Euphorbia milii- bright red flowers and spiny stem• Dasylyrion- flexible, long, thin spines that form a ball-like shape | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Gasteria- Sturdy white speckled leaves, similar to haworthia• Aeoneum ‘Kiwi’- fantastic tricolor rosettes on sturdy stems• Agave chrysantha- a classic blueish agave with yellow flowers• Echinops “Peanut cactus”- a cute and compact cactus in many exciting varieties• Euphorbia ‘Caput-madusae’- a wild cactus-like plant with leaves reaching out from the center |
|---|---|

❖ The euphorbia family is exquisitely large with an unbelievable range of plants from cactus to shrubby perennials. Check it out!